

High & Wild Wilderness Adventures 2011 Application Form

“Going to High & Wild is hands down the highlight of our year. The experience of being in the mountains immersed in horsemanship and fresh air... so removed from the outside world of cell phones, traffic and deadlines is restorative in ways you can't even begin to imagine. And the horsemanship...savvy seeps in that you are not even aware of, that comes from experiencing unique horsemanship situations that would not occur in everyday life, with Glenn's help. You take home a quiet unspoken gift for your horse, yourself, and all those whom you relate to, of knowing more about where to be, when to be and what to do when you get there. That's Savvy. It's not something that you are one day but not the next; you don't take it off and on like a coat. It becomes a part of what you are and it's with you for life.”
